

CONFIDENCE REIGNS IN BLUE & GRAY CAMP

Georgetown Satisfied That Victory Over Virginia Will Be Achieved in Big Game Saturday--Last Practice Held.

Washington, D. C., November 13.—Heavy practice in every department of the game and confidence in every move of the Blue and Gray line-up featured today's practice of the Hilltoppers. It was the last practice the Georgetown men will get on their own grounds before they meet their old rivals, and it was played with the confidence that they are a better aggregation of players than the Old Dominion men. To-morrow morning early the entire squad, under Coach Benji and Gargan, will hike to Maryland, and until Saturday they will stay near Benji's not returning here until just before the whistle sounds for the biggest game of many a day. It is eight miles from Georgetown to Benji, and the Blue and Gray men will foot it and do more of the same thing to-morrow and Friday, going through light practice on Friday to get in first-class condition for the game. If there is a man anywhere around Georgetown who does not believe that the Catholic institution will roll Virginia in the dust he has not yet been found. When the coaches tell the men that they must refer to the North Carolina game and declare that Virginia will be at the same end of the line—the little end—when time is called Saturday. Everything looks good for the Blue and Gray.

CLASS "C" LEAGUES MAY PAY $1,400

Limit Is Placed on Salaries by National Association After Long Debate.

Milwaukee, Wis., November 13.—The question of maximum salary limits for the National Association of Professional Baseball Clubs was disposed of to-night, when all classes with the exception of AA reported to the convention as follows: Class A, $3,500 per month; Class B, $2,500, with the exception of the Northwestern League, which it was agreed should be allowed $1,000 additional; Class C, $1,400; Class D, $1,200. These do not include the salaries of managers. If a manager also holds a playing position, an arrangement can be made whereby he may be allowed a certain amount as a player and an additional compensation as manager. The clubs embraced in Class AA—the American Association, Pacific Coast League and International League—sent in a sealed report and it is understood have agreed upon a limit, but as none of the representatives of these clubs was present when the reports were read at the meeting, the amount of salary limit was not made public. The salary limits were not announced after a lengthy debate, and a motion to make them public was adopted by a vote of 16 to 7. A motion was adopted providing that the secretaries of all leagues report to the national secretary by February 15, 1913, upon individual players in their respective leagues.

YAMADA WHIPS WILLIE HOPPE

New York, November 13.—Kodj Kodj Amada, the Japanese cue expert, proved his worth as a billiard player and his right to be in the front rank by defeating Willie Hoppe, the world's champion at 18.3 balk line to-night in the professional championship tournament by a score of 500 to 497. By running fifty-six and 138 in his second and fourth innings, Yamada showed some wonderful billiards and demonstrated that he has a thorough knowledge of the game. Hoppe made two runs of 100 and 193 in his third and tenth innings, and played a strong, earnest game throughout, but the Tokio player outlasted him through the severe strain which both experienced toward the finish.

Bowling

The Journal team won three games from the Times-Dispatch team last night in the Palace Ducky League. The scores:

Journal	1	2	3	Totals
F. Lohman	87	107	107	291
Morrell	84	85	91	260
B. Jordan	113	90	94	297
Swann	92	99	99	290
McCady	100	92	96	288
Total	476	473	487	1,436
Times-Dispatch	1	2	3	Totals
Dawson	97	88	82	267
Miller	92	92	84	268
Carlson	97	74	90	261
Chink	87	89	89	265
Total	473	443	445	1,361

Scorer, Brown, Pine Judge, Askew. Foul line Judge, Dingley.

Games Friday night at 8:30 o'clock.

Team	P.	W.	L.	P.C.
Palace	5	6	3	.625
Alone	5	6	4	.556
Journal	5	6	5	.500
Virginia	5	6	5	.500
Times-Dispatch	5	6	6	.444
News Leader	6	2	4	.333

Believes All Records.

Washington, November 13.—Miss Florence E. Wilson, of this city, to-day eclipsed all fast typewriting records by writing at the rate of 117 words a minute for one hour. The best previous record was 112 words a minute.

HIGH-O-ME

That's the Proper Way to Pronounce Booth's HYOMEI, the Famous Catarrh Remedy, Made from Australian Eucalyptus and Other Antiseptics—Just Breathe It.

It Banishes Catarrh

When you can go to any drug store in any civilized community on earth and secure for only $1.00 a remedy that will quickly rid you of hacking, spitting and snuffing, why do you allow the devilish games of catarrh to undermine your health and destroy your efficiency?

YELLOW JACKETS CAN'T PLAY BLUES

Faculty Objection Prevents Contest With Ashland Saturday, Though Team Regrets It.

Ashland, Va., November 13.—It is with keen regret that the management of the Randolph-Mason football team was compelled to give up the idea of playing the Richmond Blues in Richmond Saturday. Both teams have the date open, and a contest between the two would undoubtedly be a big drawing card as both teams are very popular in Richmond; besides the record of the eleven would assure a splendid contest. But the faculty is opposed to allowing the team to play other than college teams. The team is anxious to try its skill against the Blues. The Yellow Jackets would not have been able to put their strongest team against the Blues Saturday, as four men are now on the injured list, and they would not feel justified in playing them with a team composed of subs. While the game would undoubtedly prove a great financial success, it might cripple the team so that the deciding championship game with Richmond College might be lost. If the faculty could be induced to allow the team to play the Blues after the Richmond College game, the team would be very glad to play, and enjoy the hospitality of the soldiers.

JOHN MARSHALL HIGH SCHOOL WILL PLAY MCGUIRE'S AGAIN

John Marshall High School and McGuire's University School will meet at Broad Street Park to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in the deciding game for the interscholastic football championship of Richmond. The High School leads have the jump, having defeated McGuire's earlier in the season, though the two schools have the same standing in the percentage column. Both eleven have prepared for the contest and each is making claims.

CONCLUDES CASE AGAINST GUNNERS

State Rests, and Defense Outlines Its Contentions in Rosenthal Murder.

New York, November 13.—The State rested its case to-night in the trial of the four gunmen accused of murdering the gambler, Herman Rosenthal, at the instigation of Charles Becker, and counsel for the gunmen opened for the defense, declaring he would show that none of the four took part in the shooting or in any way were connected with the plot to kill Rosenthal. He declared he would show the four were lured to the scene on a pretext, and that the shooting in front of the Metropole, where Rosenthal was laid low, was done by "Bridge" Weber, Harry Vallon and a mysterious stranger, who was thus brought into the case for the first time. The defense's outlying of its case by Attorney Wahle was not concluded until nearly 7 o'clock. Court was then adjourned until to-morrow morning. When the prosecution's last witness had testified Justice Gott denied Mr. Wahle's motion to dismiss the case and acquit the defendants. The lawyer then outlined his defense, going into a personal history of each of his clients, declaring that bad as their characters might be, they were not guilty of Rosenthal's murder. He declared his intention of placing each of the gunmen on the stand. He said he would show that Frank Croci, one of the four, was at his home at the time of the shooting, and that it was only their interest in their friend, the East Side gang leader, Jack Zelig, that had brought any of them near the scene of the crime. On the morning of July 16, Only Croci was in the so-called "murder car" that night, the attorney said, and this was some time before the shooting.

"Dynamite" Juries III.

Indianapolis, November 13.—Owing to the continued illness of Allen Spaulding, a juror, the "dynamite conspiracy" trial to-day was postponed until to-morrow. Spaulding's physician said he was improving.

H. T. Greenleaf Shoots Himself While in Fit of Despondency.

Elizabeth City, N. C., November 13.—H. T. Greenleaf, Sr., died this morning at 9 o'clock at his home in Matthews Street from the effect of a bullet wound in the back of his head, inflicted yesterday afternoon by his own hand. Mr. Greenleaf had been in bad health for the past two years from a stroke of paralysis, and at times was very despondent. During a fit of despondency yesterday he found a pistol in the room of one of his sons and fired the fatal shot. He is survived by a widow and nine children—H. T. Greenleaf, Jr., J. P. Greenleaf, W. A. Greenleaf, Louis Greenleaf and Jay Greenleaf; Mrs. W. A. Greenleaf, of Baltimore; Mrs. C. A. Greenleaf, of Atlanta; Mrs. Duckworth Glover and Mrs. E. R. Outlaw, Jr., of Elizabeth City. He was sixty-five years old, and was one of the most prominent business men of Southern North Carolina until ill health compelled him to retire. The funeral services will be conducted from the Episcopal Church to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. The interment will take place in the Episcopal Cemetery.

Overcoats!

Name your style and we'll show you the best Overcoats ever put together and sold for the money.

If you can't name it and are "on the fence in regard to style," just come and see our spread and you'll have no trouble, whatever, in picking out just your idea of a coat.

There are the dignified Chesterfields, the smart new Button-through models, the Convertible Collar, Storm Coats—the Ulster, Auto Coat, etc.

Raincoats, of course! Overcoats at $15, $18, $20, $25 up to $40.

Not a coat that's wrong or over-priced! Come in, see and try on!

Kirk-Parrish Co.,
627 E. Broad St. Near 7th
RICHMOND, VA.

DAUGHTERS HAVE MADE NO MISTAKE

Their Meeting in Nation's Capital Is Proving Great Success.

Washington, November 13.—A round of social gaiety to-night terminated the first business day of the convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy in convention here. A brilliant reception to the officers and delegates was given to-night by the District division of the Daughters, headed by Mrs. Marion Butler. The reception came after the memorial service for the dead of the organization and of the Confederate veterans was held this afternoon. Mrs. James Britton Gantt, of Missouri, registrar-general of the Daughters, presided at the services. Prayers and benedictions were pronounced by Dr. Randolph H. McKim, of Washington. The delegates sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and the roll of the dead was called. Reports of the officers were then read and approved. Mrs. Roy Weeks McKinney presented the report of the secretary-general; Mrs. C. B. Tate, that of the treasurer-general; Mrs. Gantt, that of the registrar-general; Mrs. L. H. Raines, that of the custodian of the crosses of honor, and Mrs. F. A. Walls, that of the custodian of the flags and pennants. A score of entertainments in honor of the visiting Daughters were given by Washington women in addition to the formal reception by the District division. The morning session was devoted to reports of committees and statements of national officers upon the progress of the year's work. Mrs. Frank G. Odenheimer, of Baltimore, first vice-president-general, presided in the absence of Mrs. Alexander B. White, of Tennessee. Far From a Failure. Those who once declared that the Daughters would make a bad mistake if they endeavored to hold a meeting in Washington, the capital of the nation, and that there would be so much adverse criticism to the undertaking that the convention would not be a success are already seeing their error, although the present gathering has only half finished its work. Far from being a failure, it has turned out that the holding of the meeting here probably will do more to cement ties between the North and South than anything else that could be done at this time. G. A. R. men and women are clapping hands with the sympathizers of "the Lost Cause," and it is easy to see that the last signs of former hard feelings are disappearing. Wherever the Daughters were gathered to-night—either in private homes or at their hotels—they were in the best of spirits and pronounced this one of the most successful meetings ever held. Mrs. L. H. Raines, of Savannah, custodian of the crosses, as well as other Georgia Daughters and those from other parts of the South, are strong in their praise of their entertainment by the Washington chapters. Virginia chapters have also taken a hand in seeing that members from further away were well looked after. Every one declares it is a great meeting. P. H. McG.

DIES OF WOUND SELF-INFLICTED

H. T. Greenleaf Shoots Himself While in Fit of Despondency.

Elizabeth City, N. C., November 13.—H. T. Greenleaf, Sr., died this morning at 9 o'clock at his home in Matthews Street from the effect of a bullet wound in the back of his head, inflicted yesterday afternoon by his own hand. Mr. Greenleaf had been in bad health for the past two years from a stroke of paralysis, and at times was very despondent. During a fit of despondency yesterday he found a pistol in the room of one of his sons and fired the fatal shot. He is survived by a widow and nine children—H. T. Greenleaf, Jr., J. P. Greenleaf, W. A. Greenleaf, Louis Greenleaf and Jay Greenleaf; Mrs. W. A. Greenleaf, of Baltimore; Mrs. C. A. Greenleaf, of Atlanta; Mrs. Duckworth Glover and Mrs. E. R. Outlaw, Jr., of Elizabeth City. He was sixty-five years old, and was one of the most prominent business men of Southern North Carolina until ill health compelled him to retire. The funeral services will be conducted from the Episcopal Church to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. The interment will take place in the Episcopal Cemetery.

WESTPOINT VA. PORT RICHMOND

Offers the best chance for you to double your money quickly by investing in real estate.

LITTLE FRUIT FARMS
BIG MONEY MAKERS.

Address O. D. I. Box 100, Richmond, Va.

DYING JURIST ACCUSED ALLEN

"Sidna Allen 'Shot Me,'" Words of Judge Massie in Hillsville Courthouse.

DR. NUCKOLS TELLS STORY

Deputy Sheriff Swears He Saw Allen Fire Twice at Prosecutor Form of Victim.

Wytheville, Va., November 13.—"Sidna Allen shot me." That was the dying declaration of Judge Thornton L. Massie, testified Dr. C. B. Nuckols today in the trial of Sidna Allen for the murder of the jurist. Dr. Nuckols attended the wounded after the Hillsville Courthouse tragedy, and in addition to telling of Judge Massie's last words, he described the wounds received by others in the affray. The chief bit of new evidence was given to-day by Frank Fowler, a deputy sheriff of Carroll County, who said he saw Sidna Allen advancing up the steps leading to Judge Massie's seat, and that Allen fired twice at the half prostrate form of the dying man. Nine witnesses had been examined when court adjourned for the day, but little was brought out that had not been related at the former trials growing out of the Hillsville Courthouse murders. All witnesses agreed that the trouble began when Floyd Allen, brother of the prisoner, and already sentenced to death, defied the sheriff to take charge of him. Several said the first shots came from the corner of the room in which Sidna Allen was standing.

Sidna Allen went through to-day's proceedings of his trial without the presence of his wife and two little daughters, who sat by his side yesterday. He appeared to bear up well under the stress of his situation, and took a great interest in the evidence. C. L. Howlett was permitted to testify out of order, as he had received a telegram announcing his mother's death in Carroll County and desired to return home. He was foreman of the jury that convicted Floyd Allen, and said that when Judge Massie directed the sheriff to take charge of the prisoner, Floyd said, "I ain't going."

Deputy Sheriff E. C. Gillespie, of Carroll County, detailed the events just preceding the shooting. He heard Floyd Allen say, "I ain't going," and when the firing began he fired four times at Floyd Allen's breast, but thought that none of the shots took effect. He also fired at Floyd's head, as the latter went out of the court room. The witness was certain that Sidna Allen fired the shot that killed Judge Massie, and described the positions of the men in the court room. Judge Buxton subjected the witness to a severe cross-examination, but elicited very little that was new.

FOREST FIRE RAGING.

Believed to Have Been Started by Sparks from Engine.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Goldsboro, N. C., November 13.—A forest fire is raging between Freeport and Pikeville. The Atlantic Coast Line train, which is due at Goldsboro at 3 P. M., was delayed for twenty minutes on account of a burning trestle. The engineer stopped his train when he saw the fire, and at first refused to run through the flames and smoke that enveloped the track, but at the conductor's orders rushed his train past the danger line. The fire created much excitement among the passengers, and one woman fainted. A spark from the engine is believed to have started the fire. A special train has been hurried to the scene.

SOCIALIST FIGHT AGAINST GOMERS

He Will Not Be Re-Elected President of Federation Without Opposition.

Rochester, N. Y., November 13.—So far as the American Federation of Labor is concerned there is no such organization as the International Association of Steam and Hot Water and Power Pipe Fitters and Helpers of America. This declaration was made to-day by President Gompers before the thirty-second convention of the federation, and the convention upheld when, after an all day debate and by a vote of 192 to 31, it refused to seat the delegates of the International Association.

The reason given by President Gompers and the delegates who backed him up, is that the United Association of Journeymen Plumbers, Gas Fitters and Steam Fitters Helpers of America, which is affiliated with the federation, takes in members of the steam fitter's trade, and it would be contrary to the federation's principles to recognize more than one international union in a single trade. Last year the International Association was ordered to affiliate with the United Association, but did not comply, and the federation's executive council decided to accept the per capita tax from only the United Association.

Members of the radical wing of the convention, which includes nearly 100 Socialists, assert that vigorous opposition will be made to the re-election of President Gompers and that if he is re-elected it will be his last term. Socialists have been trying for years to win the federation over to their principles, but they have stumbled on the opposition of President Gompers to direct political action. The fight is likely to come when the question of referring the election of officers to a referendum vote of the members is to be taken up.

An interesting side issue of the convention is a squabble between members of the regular wing of the White Rats Actors' Union of America. The former, headed by James D. Doyle, is bent on securing revocation of the charter of the regulars on the ground that they have been false to union principles. William J. Cook, of New York, business representative of the regular association, denies the charge.

COUNTRY BELONGS TO CAPITALISM

That Is Teaching Which Labor Leader Gives Salem Strikers.

Salem, Mass., November 13.—That he told foreign strikers of Lawrence that the Constitution, the laws, the courts, the police and soldiers belonged to the capitalists, was testified under circumstances by Joseph J. W. W. W.

If You Want the Best Entertainment, the Most and Greatest Variety, Get Next Sunday's Illustrated Sunday Magazine of

The Road to To-Morrow By W. Carey Wonderly

A fascinating story of money, a man and a woman—realistic and absorbing.

The Horse Wrangler By George Pattullo

A romance of the cattle country, full of excitement, ending in a brilliant finish.

Snatching Success from Failure in Big Football Games

An especially good article, dramatically written and tingling with excitement. Just as interesting for those who do not know the game as those who do.

The Last Moment, by J. Oliver Curwood

Into this story is crowded enough feeling to make a novel.

George Randolph Chester, author of the famous Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford stories, is writing a new series exclusively for

The Illustrated Sunday Magazine

Silver-Tongued Sammy; or a Staatsman at Fortene

A smile-maker for fair—an office boy novel

By Paul West

"THE BEST THERE IS IN SUNDAY READING"

The Times-Dispatch

hold the strikers much longer.

"Did you mean you could not keep them from returning to work?"

"No."

"Then did you mean that you could not restrain them from further outbreaks of violence?"

"No, I feared I could not hold the strikers from bringing the workers on of other mills; the strike would come bigger and worse."

Editor said further that he recalled saying to the strikers on January 13 that the mill owners would come in terms by the following day or something would happen they would not like. He referred, he said, to a speech of the strike to other mills of the American Woolen Company.

The district attorney examined the witness at length as to his company's ideas. The cardinal principle of the Industrial Workers of the World, Editor said, was the revolutionary word, abolition of the wage system.

Wood that he feared that he could not

hold the strikers much longer.

"Did you mean you could not keep them from returning to work?"

"No."

"Then did you mean that you could not restrain them from further outbreaks of violence?"

"No, I feared I could not hold the strikers from bringing the workers on of other mills; the strike would come bigger and worse."

Editor said further that he recalled saying to the strikers on January 13 that the mill owners would come in terms by the following day or something would happen they would not like. He referred, he said, to a speech of the strike to other mills of the American Woolen Company.

The district attorney examined the witness at length as to his company's ideas. The cardinal principle of the Industrial Workers of the World, Editor said, was the revolutionary word, abolition of the wage system.

Wood that he feared that he could not

The Times-Dispatch

The Road to To-Morrow By W. Carey Wonderly

A fascinating story of money, a man and a woman—realistic and absorbing.

The Horse Wrangler By George Pattullo

A romance of the cattle country, full of excitement, ending in a brilliant finish.

Snatching Success from Failure in Big Football Games

An especially good article, dramatically written and tingling with excitement. Just as interesting for those who do not know the game as those who do.

The Last Moment, by J. Oliver Curwood

Into this story is crowded enough feeling to make a novel.

George Randolph Chester, author of the famous Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford stories, is writing a new series exclusively for

The Illustrated Sunday Magazine

Silver-Tongued Sammy; or a Staatsman at Fortene

A smile-maker for fair—an office boy novel

By Paul West

"THE BEST THERE IS IN SUNDAY READING"

The Times-Dispatch

hold the strikers much longer.

"Did you mean you could not keep them from returning to work?"

"No."

"Then did you mean that you could not restrain them from further outbreaks of violence?"

"No, I feared I could not hold the strikers from bringing the workers on of other mills; the strike would come bigger and worse."

Editor said further that he recalled saying to the strikers on January 13 that the mill owners would come in terms by the following day or something would happen they would not like. He referred, he said, to a speech of the strike to other mills of the American Woolen Company.

The district attorney examined the witness at length as to his company's ideas. The cardinal principle of the Industrial Workers of the World, Editor said, was the revolutionary word, abolition of the wage system.

Wood that he feared that he could not

hold the strikers much longer.

"Did you mean you could not keep them from returning to work?"

"No."

"Then did you mean that you could not restrain them from further outbreaks of violence?"

"No, I feared I could not hold the strikers from bringing the workers on of other mills; the strike would come bigger and worse."

Editor said further that he recalled saying to the strikers on January 13 that the mill owners would come in terms by the following day or something would happen they would not like. He referred, he said, to a speech of the strike to other mills of the American Woolen Company.

The district attorney examined the witness at length as to his company's ideas. The cardinal principle of the Industrial Workers of the World, Editor said, was the revolutionary word, abolition of the wage system.

Wood that he feared that he could not

hold the strikers much longer.

"Did you mean you could not keep them from returning to work?"

"No."

"Then did you mean that you could not restrain them from further outbreaks of violence?"

"No, I feared I could not hold the strikers from bringing the workers on of other mills; the strike would come bigger and worse."

Editor said further that he recalled saying to the strikers on January 13 that the mill owners would come in terms by the following day or something would happen they would not like. He referred, he said, to a speech of the strike to other mills of the American Woolen Company.

The district attorney examined the witness at length as to his company's ideas. The cardinal principle of the Industrial Workers of the World, Editor said, was the revolutionary word, abolition of the wage system.

Wood that he feared that he could not hold the strikers much longer.